

Collector Favorites: Bestselling Artists of May

Waves of Summer by Andrada Anghel via Saatchi Art

May 23, 2024

Posted by Audrey Wolfe

About Art We Love

Discover some of the art that's catching our eye lately. Here we'll also bring you the stories behind some of today's most fascinating works of art, straight from the mouths of their creators.

Tagged

Art

Art We Love

Collector Favorites

Art We Love

Collector Favorites: Bestselling Artists of May

Ever wondered what other people are buying for their personal art collections? Though your tastes may differ, seeing what others are purchasing can help you discover new artists whose works you might not otherwise have considered.

Below, meet 5 artists who have proven to be popular favorites with our collectors. For more ideas, contact our curators who can help you find similar works in your budget.

Kris Gebhardt

American artist Kris Gebhardt creates monumental artworks distinctive in their gritty and layered style. In addition to his art practice, Kris is also a fitness author and consultant. He has been a longtime Saatchi Art artist and has been featured in the Saatchi Art print catalog. He has exhibited extensively across the United States, with particular emphasis on Miami. See more of Kris's work here.

Magdalena Morey

Based in Spain, painter Magdalena Morey's abstract work focuses on the interactions between textures and materials through her experiments with various media and techniques. Magdalena received her Master's Degree in Art from Marie Curie Skłodowska University in Poland. She has been featured in the Saatchi Art print catalog and has participated in numerous group and solo exhibitions internationally. See more of Magdalena's work here.

Daive Querin

Italian artist Davide Querin utilizes the oil glazing technique to realize his detailed paintings inspired by vintage illustrations and photographs. He received a university degree in illustration, editorial, and advertising graphics and a Master's in oil painting at the Atelier di Luigi Quintili. Davide has exhibited extensively in Rome, Paris, and Miami. His work resides in private collections internationally. See more of Davide's work here.

Andrada Anghel

Romanian painter Andrada Anghel composes brightly colored and free-flowing abstracts that are reminiscent of misty landscapes and bodies of water. Now based in Canada, Andrada received degrees in art from Vanier College and Concordia University in Montreal. Andrada's work has been featured in Saatchi Art's print catalog and in numerous exhibitions internationally. See more of Andrada's work here.

Kiseok Kim

New York-based South Korean artist Kiseok Kim works in large scale to create cartoon-like portrait paintings influenced by social media and digital art. Kiseok received his BFA in Painting from Dong-A University in Busan, South Korea, and his MFA in Painting from the Pratt Institute in 2009. Since 2007, he has also participated in numerous solo and group exhibitions across the United States. See more of Kiseok's work here.

Plastic
Kiseok Kim

$ 13,500

View artwork

Playing With Shapes V
Magdalena Morey

$ 579

View artwork

1784
Davide Querin

$ 3,330

View artwork

Accelerant
Kris Gebhardt

$ 8,500

View artwork

Plastic
Kiseok Kim

$ 18,000

View artwork

Beach Party
Andrada Anghel

$ 1,410

View artwork

The Prince
Davide Querin

$ 5,650

View artwork

Disrupted Horizons I
Magdalena Morey

$ 2,005

View artwork

See More Artworks In The Best Of May Collection

